2019 Year

J. Walker Field Scholarship Application

History: In 2012 the Board of Trustees created the J. Walker Field Scholarship in honor of the man that was accredited with the formation of the Florida Kiwanis Foundation. The Foundation began in 1971 when, then Florida District Governor, J. Walker Field suggested this was a necessary thing to provide backing for his beloved Key Clubs. He insisted that Ralph Davis be the driving force behind the formation and appointed him president until the foundation was approved by Kiwanis International, incorporated, and bylaws established that would provide for elected officers. Since few people knew of the existence of the Foundation, J. Walker Field let it be known that he wanted to serve as president once his year as governor was over. His wish was granted and he became the first elected president of the Foundation in September 1972.
