BACKGROUND HISTORY:
After joining Kiwanis in 1967, George Langguth served in many positions at the Club, District, and International levels, often earning Distinguished Status. He has received the highest honor Key Club can bestow on an individual in 8 Districts in North America. On February 1, 1988, he became Florida District Secretary and held the position of District Secretary and Executive Director for 24 years, longer than anyone in Florida District history.
